SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, USA, June 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RedFox Games, a global online game publisher providing services in North America, South America, and Europe since 2015, has concluded a large-scale Closed Beta Test (CBT) from June 15th to the 22nd before the official launch of Kingdom Hunter. RedFox Games is one of the frontrunners in the South American MMORPG market, previously publishing the popular game Black Desert Online.

In the closed beta for Kingdom Hunter, 3,000 users were selected out of 10,000 applicants from around the world. Initially, 1,000 users were expected to participate in the CBT, however, the number was expanded to 3,000 due to the exceeding number of the applicants.

After the completion of the Closed Beta, more than 95% of users who participated in the survey recommended the game and evaluated it as an exciting game to play along with friends. In particular, users gave high scores to the aspects of Hero collection, level-up and unlocking skills, strategic competition with other players, dynamic battles on a huge world map, and the various exploration activities.

Many positive reviews from users are predicting the success of Kingdom Hunter. A RedFox Games official said, "We are very pleased to see that users have clearly recognized the strengths of Kingdom Hunter including the exquisite combination of strategy and TCG, balanced balance, and rich and unique game system. Our staff will focus on emphasizing the core features to maximize the game's enjoyment."
