The Atlanta hip hop star began his search in spite of him and his father being estranged for many years. "Family is Family and with so much happening in the world, it is important now more than ever. Media Music News has been a tremendous help in my search for my dad. It was a shot in the dark but I said to myself, they have helped me get in the news as an independent artist, maybe they can help me with this as well."

Media Music News is the premiere media outlet for all things independent artists. "We value each of our artists and treat them with the respect they deserve. If a mainstream artist were experiencing this, it would be all over the news. We place the same value on our independent artists.

The 'Dear DJ (Once Upon a Time)' rapper says he is eager to find his father because of recent information he has been made aware of that suggest he wasn't as bad of a person as he thought he was.

"It is amazing how my perspective changed because I was willing to hear and discover what really happened when my dad left us. I was just 10 years old. I was fed stories that I now need to clear up with him. They will help me and my son”.

The Rapper has filed a report with the Atlanta Police Department's Missing Person's Unit but has not heard back from APD. No additional information is available at this time. All updates will be posted on Deveondi's Artist Page on <https://mediamusicnews.com/deveondi>
