Softlink IC General Manager Sarah Thompson said “We wanted to deliver a short, sharp series of sessions that were informative, and fun. The Virtual Open Day was designed for any library or librarian that was interested in learning more about Liberty and illumin. It was also a change to stump our expert and hear about our development roadmap.”

Feedback from participants, who thoroughly enjoyed the sessions, included the ideal 30-minute format for each topic, a variety of content and presenters, enjoying a preview of new features and enhancements and an easy-to-follow schedule of events.

Feedback received over the three time zones was positive, including one participant who said "[A] very informative session. I am not very familiar with Liberty, so was interested in getting tips, particularly regarding digital resources and serials ... and it has given me plenty to think about and feedback to my team. Many thanks for the opportunity to tune in. It was a very convenient format. Lovely to see some friendly faces from the Softlink team."
