Lifchitz conducted his North/South Chamber Orchestra in a matter-of-factly transcendent program of contemporary compositions. North/South concerts cross-pollinate composers from across the Americas.”

Lucid Culture

Specially prepared arrangements of Oblivion and Libertango -- two of the most famous tangos by the great Argentinean composer -- will be featured as performed by Argentinean violinist Leonardo Suarez-Paz and choreographed by the director of the Nuevo Tango Ballet Olga Suarez-Paz.

Also on the program, Alberto Ginastera's magical Impresiones de la Puna featuring flutist Lisa Hansen as well as Max Lifchitz's most recent work which will be heard for the first time titled Four Tango Sketches. A tango concerto for violin, bandoneon and cello by Leonardo Suarez-Paz will round-off the evening.
