

The Los Angeles Times Festival Of Books of 2022 presents, Stolen Honours

A Science Fiction Crafted with Suspense and Supernatural Powers

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Author Diane Lewis will be one of the featured authors in the upcoming Los Angeles Festival of Books 2022 with her published book titled STOLEN HONOURS. A science fiction book about time travel, history, and the dangers of disrupting the timeline. It entails the agents of the Time Bureau, who are working within the protection of the towering Px Dome, scour history for anomalies. They defend reality from the time shifts and paradox waves to prevent them from controlling or stealing from the past or rewriting history for their gain.

An item was bought for investigation, and it was given to junior agent Ryan Hajjar. He is the youngest in the bureau and stepping into his first assignment without the oversight or guidance of his partner, senior agent Elizabeth Johnston. A case where the information is more important than protecting the paradox waves.

“Fun, rollicking adventure of endearing characters traveling through time to some different and fascinating historical events. Kept me locked in since I’m a history guy, and while not a big science fiction buff, I could follow and appreciate the time travel concepts. You’ll like applying your mystery skills to the twists at the end! Enjoyable and involving reading!”
— Robert Donahue, Amazon Customer Review.

“The silent tension built with each stroke of the paddles as they slid through the darkness closer to the city. Suddenly, a hand grabbed her shoulder as Mark, the young jittery man.”—”
