“Bringing retired players back for our events is a natural fit for us and is part of our DNA,” said NBRPA President and CEO Scott Rochelle. “With the importance of Summer League and all of the possibilities Las Vegas presents, we want to make sure we have a large presence here as well and keep this community of players involved in everything that’s going on in world of basketball and business.”

The Emerging Technology & Player Opportunities Tech Summit will provide a blue-ribbon panel consisting of NBA Legends Metta Sandiford Artest, representatives from The ARIA Exchange, BLEAV, and the NBA and will be moderated by NBA/WNBA analyst, ESPN - Ros Gold-Onwude.

Discussions will center on the newest developments in the NFT space, podcasting, and the potential these innovative fields present for former players.

The Amazon Career event will feature WNBA Legend Yolanda Moore discussing her experiences as part of Amazon's Athletes Program and the impact it has had on her post-playing career and the benefits for other athletes.

Legends will also show off their golf swings at an exclusive outing at TopGolf Las Vegas and check out the newest NBA talent when they take in NBA Summer League action at the Thomas & Mack Center.
