

Signs By Veterans and Savage Shakers Founder Announces Sponsorship for #TEAMUSA Para-Athlete Brian Conwell

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES , July 1, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Justin Myers, a former Sailor of the Year for the US Navy announced that he will be sponsoring para-athlete Brian “Big Country” Conwell for the National Veterans Wheelchair Games in Tempe. The games will be held July 7th-12th, 2022. Justin was inspired after reading Brian’s story about losing use of his legs during an industrial accident while active duty in 2014. Brian proved his doctors wrong and trained until he was able to walk again on his own. He started competing in athletic events for the disabled, winning several medals.

I’m proud of Brian and his mental toughness to defy the odds. As a veteran who separated service in a wheelchair, his story hit me personally. Very easy decision to sign him as a sponsored athlete.”

Justin Myers, CEO, Signs by Veterans

Myers, a decorated sailor, made Navy history when he defended the USS Ashland (LSD 48) and a 700 member crew from Somalian pirates. This led to the first capture and conviction for piracy in over 100 years. He is the CEO and founder of multi-award winning Signs by Veterans and Savage Shakers. He is a former #TeamUSA Taekwondo Junior Olympian that fought in the 1996 Olympics.
