They fully understand that every animal has its own personality and strive to satisfy its unique requirements, from pup to senior and very active to shy. Our prime focus is to make the dogs and their parents happy through our alternative style of boarding and doggy daycare." ~ Jackie Roberts.

Eureka Happy Dog Day Care and Boarding was established in 1998 in Humboldt County. As the first alternative style doggy boarding facility and daycare in the North Coast area, it received a warm welcome from the community. It was inspired by the founder's wish to create a place where they would feel comfortable leaving their dogs. The facility consists of several main play areas and some non-group areas. The premium ForeverLawn K-9 grass offers a playful space for dogs to socialize and enjoy activities.
