Billy Issa is a powerful youth force for Africa. The world would be better with more individuals with a mind and heart like Billy. He is a leader and his actions prove it.”

Dr. Ruben West

Billy Issa is also the founder of Inspire 50 Women Conference & Network and Inspire 50 Young Women Conference & Network, initiatives of Billy Issa Leadership Int'l focused on promoting the leadership of African women and young women on the international stage. It is within this framework that he partnered with I Change Nations, a global leader in civility and the world's largest building-honor culture network led by HRH. Sir Clyde Rivers and with Greatness University the world's premier institution focused on discovering, developing, delivering and documenting greatness around the world led by Dr. Patrick Businge to annually award and celebrate African women who have distinguished themselves in their fields.

His first book "7 Key Factors for Exponential Personal and Organizational Growth" was acclaimed and recommended by millionaire entrepreneurs such as Luc Gerard Nyafe, Dr. Sunday Adelaja and international experts such as Dr. Jason Renville, Coach Alex Ihama, Ange Tranchida, Dr. Raymond Eneas, HRH Sir Clyde Rivers, and others. Billy Issa's book is prefaced by a genius expert on leadership, youth and family in the person of his mentor Dr. Dave Burrows, successor to his father Dr. Myles Munroe, a leadership coach and mentor specializing in third world nations.

His vision and passion remains to travel across Africa and the world to train, inspire and produce game-changing leaders, catalysts of socio-organizational change and crisis solvers for organizations and nations.

In 2019 he received the Ambassador of Development and Social Award, Coaching category, an initiative of Kin Business Awards, alongside some of the country's personalities such as Senator Didier Mumengi and Dr. Noel Tshiani.
