reminder to himself to inspire the cultural as a black designer for people to feel "If he can do it, then I can do it". Stackz emphasized, "The key to the game is to not second guess yourself" as he spoke about his experience working with the Famous Jackson family. Each stylist brought a unique perspective to the dialogue that impacted aspiring creatives through their passed-down knowledge and mutual relationships. Style By Music was very successful due to the efforts of our amazing guest and media partners Revolt, Sheen Magazine and more!

The celebration was held in a downtown Los Angeles venue that had a live band with a remarkable performance by rising music sensation Emi Secrest and Musicology later presented a fashion show showcasing black designers: K Waters Fashion, Chicago Playground, Champagne Champion Generation TYPO. Invigorating is what describes this wonderful production with live sets from DJ ER and Nuf Ced that kept the crowd vibing the whole night.
