"It is an esteemed honour to receive this award and to be in a company of such distinguished leaders. I graciously accept this award on behalf of the LifeLabs Team," says Charles Brown.

"These past two years, we came together as a team to conquer the changing landscape of the pandemic. Our team showed up every day embodying our values, showing resilience, while continuously supporting our customers and the healthcare community. It is a privilege to work with everyone and I look forward to what we will achieve together in the future."

World Biz Magazine's Top 100 Innovation CEO Awards celebrates business leaders across the globe that are making major strides in their industries. It recognizes product, service, functional, strategic, and managerial innovation. It also recognizes individuals showing exceptional commercial insight and market integrity. Sustainability forms a key cornerstone of the awards and is an integral part of the selection criteria. Every year over 40,000 leaders are shortlisted and following a stringent evaluation process, only 100 winners are selected.

Mike Walters, Editor in Chief of World Biz Magazine: "We are pleased to announce Charles Brown as a recipient of this Award. To be highlighted within the Top 10 of the 100 winners is a testament to Charles' success in driving customer-centred innovation for the millions of Canadians counting on LifeLabs for the information they need to make decisions about their health. LifeLabs' comprehensive response to the COVID-19 pandemic while maintaining full operation of its testing and diagnostics services, demonstrates the agility in leadership that has won Charles and LifeLabs international commendation across the Biotechnology and Life Sciences industries. We believe LifeLabs stands out as an example to companies in its field worldwide."
