Charlotte, NC is the second-most populous city in the Southeast and the seventh-largest city in the Southern United States. Charlotte has a several nicknames, one being "Queen City" after the German princess of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, who became the Queen Consort of Great Britain and Ireland seven years before the town's incorporation. You will be quick to notice the little crowns on signs all around town as homage to this original nickname. Another being "The Hornet's Nest," dubbed such by British Commander General who was driven out by "hostile residents" during the American Revolutionary War. You will find a hornet nest depicted on every police car and officer's uniform. After independence was won, its third nickname came to be "The City of Churches," having representation of various denominations throughout the city.

Charlotte is the major center of the U.S. motorsports industry. Many in the know acknowledge Nascar's headquarters are in Daytona Beach, Florida, but that Charlotte is its real home. It is where the NASCAR Hall of Fame resides right next to the Nascar office tower. For over three decades the city commemorates the May races at Charlotte Motor Speedway with spectacular events for the whole family. Also, the city's northeastern suburb hosts the only U.S. Formula One team, Haas F1, and most of the race teams, employees, and drivers are based nearby.

Gateway Classic Cars' newest location in Charlotte, NC Market is modeled after our existing nineteen showrooms in St. Louis, MO (HQ); Atlanta, GA; Chicago, IL; Dallas, TX; Denver, CO; Detroit, MI; Fort Lauderdale, FL; Houston, TX; Indianapolis, IN; Kansas City, KS; Las Vegas, NV;

Louisville, KY; Milwaukee, WI; Nashville, TN; Orlando, FL; Philadelphia, PA; San Antonio / Austin, TX; Scottsdale, AZ; and Tampa, FL markets with others to soon follow.

The showroom will be open to the public from 9 AM to 5 PM six days a week (Mon-Sat) and will also host our Caffeine & Chrome event on the last Saturday of each month from 9AM to noon.
