tests of its Verification Program, it found that a retailer had an incorrect warehouse connection. During the 6-week monitoring process, this issue resulted in an inability for customers to view and purchase products online. This lack of listing of the brand's products on the trading partner's site correlated to a loss of $500,000 of annual revenue. As a result of these findings, the brand was able to rectify the problem with the help of Syndic8's new Verification Program and eliminate any potential loss of revenue during the selling season. To that end, Syndic8's Verification Program benefited both the brand and the retailer.

“As a nimble technology company, we actively listen to our customer's needs, and quickly develop digital solutions like the Verification Program to fill a void in the marketplace” said Chris John, Syndic8's CEO and Co-founder. Our Verification Program performs checks of seasonal and core products sent in correlation with a given trading destination. Our Syndication Service complements our Verification Program by maximizing your e-commerce sales by getting your products on the digital shelf sooner with greater accuracy while checking to see if your products stay on the digital shelf as well.”
