JASPER, INDIANA, UNITED STATES, July 6, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In less than six months on the international screenplay circuit, Kevin Schewe's Bad Love Tigers has generated momentum on its whirlwind sweep of the globe, finding acclaim at film festivals spanning from Los Angeles to Hong Kong and dozens of locations in between. By the end of June 2022, the screenplay has amassed an astonishing 83 awards, including Best Original Story at the Cannes World Film Festival, Best Sci-Fi/Fantasy Screenplay at the Vegas Movie Awards, Best Screenplay at the London Classic Film Festival and Honorable Mention at the Los Angeles Movie Awards.

Schewe's Bad Love Tigers is a feel good, action-adventure, sci-fi blend of Stand by Me meets Raiders of the Lost Ark or Back to the Future meets Goonies. The energetic and fun screenplay has strong appeal and great potential to attract an audience of all ages to the big screen. This incredible display of worldwide interest shows that Bad Love Tigers is already a global phenomenon, crossing cultures and borders and demonstrating its potential to be a feel-great-again, big-screen blockbuster.

Schewe has been keeping audiences in the loop via his Instagram account. After winning at the Cannes World Film Festival, Schewe shared this message. "The Bad Love Gang and I are totally honored, humbled, and thrilled to the stars with this wonderful win in France! Thank you, CWFF!"

When Bad Love Tigers won at the prestigious Vegas Movie Awards, Schewe commented, "The Bad Love Gang and I are over-the-top thrilled and honored by this recognition and so excited to get this global-busting, feel-good movie to the big screen. It's the Year of the Tiger and it is time to make Bad Love Tigers fly!"

Bad Love Tigers, book two of twelve planned in the best-selling Bad Love Book Series, is about a dynamic group of young adventurers, known as the Bad Love Gang, who use a time machine to travel back to the World War II era, meet with President Roosevelt and embark on a perilous secret mission to protect an alien spaceship and defeat the Japanese in combat. Keeping America's deepest secret safe at Area-51 hinges on the success of their quest.

"If history was taught this way in school, everyone would be a scholar and educating ourselves not only about our accomplishments but the horrors of the past that should awaken and give insight to the path of a better future. A rare gem!"
