What is an LLC?

An LLC, also known as a limited liability company, is a US business structure that combines the flexibility, simplicity, and tax advantages of a partnership structure with the personal liability protection of a corporation. Keep in mind that owners of LLCs are known as members. The main benefit of starting a LLC is that it shields participants from liability. Also, LLC startups help offer unique tax benefits. These benefits enhance wealth-saving and creation opportunities for owners.

In the event of a legal dispute or bankruptcy, the owner's personal assets, such as bank accounts, retirement accounts, homes, and cars, cannot be considered assets of the company.

However, Create LLC online is usually fairly challenging and time-consuming without a streamlined and effective process. It involves federal and state filings and plenty of documentation. Difficulties relating to preparing documents, like Articles of Organization, and finding a Registered Agent can inhibit many. Although many business guides outline the process to follow, it can still be quite challenging for budding entrepreneurs and get everything right. However, the new “LLC.as.gov Portal” solves these issues!

The “llc.as.gov Portal” provides benefits to all individuals.
