

Growing Expertise: Avenga joins the AWS Partner Network

COLOGNE, NORTH RHINE-WESTPHALIA, DEUTSCHLAND, July 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Avenga, a global engineering and IT consulting platform, has achieved AWS Select Partner status. As such, Avenga has proven its AWS expertise, capabilities, and engineering capacities in building cloud solutions on AWS. In addition, the company constantly develops its cloud practices to deliver even more value to its customers by transforming their technologies and businesses with the AWS cloud services.

AWS allows companies to obtain large-scale computing capacity without acquiring actual physical server farms and offers the opportunity to build sophisticated applications with increased flexibility, scalability, and reliability on a metered pay-as-you-go basis. According to estimates of Synergy Research Group, the profitable cloud platform amounted to 33 percent of the worldwide cloud infrastructure market share in Q4 2021, with an industry total for the year of $178 billion.
