

DR. LAWRENCE BANTA WRITES A BOOK FOR CHILDREN WARRIORS

Dr. Lawrence Banta shares his purpose for the children warriors in his book Help for the Hurting Child: Christian Approaches to Therapeutic Parenting

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, July 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The most precious human beings in the world must be children. Everything becomes as simple as 1 2 3 with their pure mind and heart. However, being emotionally harmed at an early age leaves them with a devastating ache in their hearts, particularly as they grow up apart from their biological parents. The major goal of Help for the Hurting Child: Christian Approaches to Therapeutic Parenting is to support kids who are unable to be with their biological parents.

Dr. Larry E. Banta was born and raised in Ohio, on a farm near Cincinnati. He enrolled at a college in Lincoln, Nebraska where he got his degree BS in Microbiology then continued to the University of Nebraska Medical College, where he received his MD degree. After graduation from medical school, he completed training in general and child and adolescent psychiatry. "The last several years I had the opportunity to travel various countries and to work with also kids and our own country of United States and to be able to work with kids who have been in out of home placements such as foster care, orphanages, kids in adoptions and kids in adoptions who didn't work out." he shares.
