

Hackney Publications and Hackney Communications Contribute $1,000 to Miracle Foundation

Founder Holt Hackney thanked everyone who has ever worked with his companies over the last two decades for making this contribution possible.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, July 8, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Hackney Publications, the nation's leading publisher of sports law periodicals, and Hackney Communications, an international public relations firm, have announced a $1,000 contribution to the Miracle Foundation, a global charity that for more than 20 years has empowered vulnerable children to reach their full potential.

"Hackney Publications and Hackney Communications didn't get here by accident," said Holt Hackney, the founder of each company. "We have had dozens of incredible contractors and employees through the years, who deserve credit for our success and, by extension, this donation."

Hackney continued, noting that losing his father early in his life made this an especially poignant opportunity to help a Foundation dedicated to helping children, who no longer have parents due to circumstances beyond their control.

"Losing my father at age 7 gives me some empathy for what these kids are going through," he said. "If I can help in any small way, it is worth it."

Hackney added that he has known Caroline Boudreaux since she founded Miracle Foundation more than two decades ago, and admired her work.

"The impact that Caroline and her team at Miracle Foundation have had on the world's most vulnerable population – impoverished children – is astonishing and something to be appreciated," Hackney said. "Please consider the foundation's work and supporting its efforts."
