Founded by Olympic Skateboarder, Nyjah Huston and Peeeglasses' Daniel Benlulu, CDJ's is a Cutting-edge VR Experience as DJs Perform Remotely on Massive Stages

MIAMI, FLORIDA, USA, July 12, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Chaotic DJs, a collection of 10,000 unique Non-Fungible Tokens (NFT) living on the Ethereum blockchain, acting as all-access passes into a chaotic fantasy world, offering users an elevated experience through live avatar performances, ultimately uniting the DJ, festival, and music community worldwide.

The Co-founders Huston and Benlulu, alongside investors Kliff Kingsbury (Head Coach for the Arizona Cardinals and New England Patriots Superbowl

Champion) and Joseph Isaacoff (Entrepreneur and Financier), have secured a partnership with New York based online learning program, Yellowbrick, that grants the opportunity for 5 free scholarships, to be given away every year, to the NYU | TISCH x Billboards Music Industry Essentials program for Chaotic DJs holders.

"Although skateboarding is my life, I have a huge passion for music. Throughout the past couple years I've been getting more and more into EDM/House music and I aspire to be a DJ one day making my own playlists and sets. We founded Chaotic DJs so that others like myself can interact with one another remotely as a community and in real life at our exclusive events," said Huston.

The Chaotic DJs platform is revolutionizing the DJ and festival/events industry by incorporating

Chaotic DJ's

NFT and Web3 technology with an upgradeable roadmap allowing it to keep the community updated, engaged, and rewarded.

Comprised of four different animal avatars - a Tiger, Bunny, Wolf, and Ape, the collectible series of unique tokens come with real-world utilities, including:

- Music education and mentorship programs
- Backstage tickets to the top music festivals in the world
- Fully-paid invites to exclusive parties and events
- Studio recording and production sessions
- Day-in-the-life of high-profile celebrities and entrepreneurs
- Tickets to Chaotic DJs' festival and club partners' Metaverse parties
- Dashboard app and social music platform to upload content, interact with and discover new artists and music sets
- Crypto and merch giveaways

"For those that know me, they can attest to my throwing some of the craziest parties ever. Along with our festival and club partners, Chaotic DJs will be doing exactly that multiple times a year and giving our community of established and aspiring DJs the opportunity to perform on the big stage. The greater the participation, the greater the reward. Expect the unexpected...it's going to be Chaotic," said Benlulu.
