/EINPresswire.com/ -- "When you have such a large collection of valuable specialized asset class collectibles to sell at a no reserve auction, you want the tools at your disposal to ensure you reach your target market", said Joe Cortese, President NobleSpirit.

It was nearly a year ago on August 13th, 2021 that NobleSpirit an innovation leading company in collectibles, announced the introduction of new technological features designed to transform the auction experience on eBay. Since then each of its monthly specialized catalogue auctions has proven to be a resounding success in accessing deep lifetime buyers in their respective market sectors.

The new NobleSpirit Catalogue incorporates uniquely constructed architecture that presents an unparalleled opportunity for buyers to spend weeks in advance discovering, planning, researching and budgeting their buying decisions.

Today, NobleSpirit announced the next in its series of regular monthly catalogue auction sales; Lois Regestein Collection Rare Date Gold Silver Eagles, US Premium Singles, Sets
An outstanding hand selected 431 American Eagles and gold coins - seldom seen low population rarities, many of which representing less than 10 known signature series examples for the issue.

"Bidding and buying are two different things. Bidding is an aspiration. Buying is an affirmation.
