After opening the first store in Salem in 2011, Capital Pawn quickly established a reputation in the local community and beyond for a warm and inviting atmosphere focused on outstanding customer service delivered by engaged and friendly employees. It's an approach that has won local and national recognition and has led to the opening of four additional locations in McMinnville, Albany, Beaverton, and the acquisition of H&B Pawn, Oregon's oldest licensed pawnshop.

"We're thrilled to be recognized," said Beth Anundi, who operates the company alongside Adam, "And it's particularly gratifying to see Adam specifically named since his leadership is key to our culture as a company and the development of our team."
