2021 Escalade ESV For Rent

“As an avid traveler, I value my time and stress level. I pay for convenience and have always found the car rental system broken. So, here we are. Looking to make waves and give a level of service for people who value it,” says Marcus Hansen, President at L.P. Transportation. He continued “I have seen families of 5 walking from the airport to the west economy in a January storm to try and find their “rental car”. I have seen business travelers get on the bus to the car rental location only to wait in line. We are here to offer something more.”
