Barrier Tube Packaging Market: Market Dynamics

The need of making packaging more user-friendly has led to the evolution of tube packaging. Barrier tube packaging is co-related to the flexible packaging market. Flexible packaging is estimated to be about US$ 238 billion and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 5.2% over the forecast period. On the backdrop of the convenience offered by the tube packaging the use of the tubes for packaging of viscous fluids influences the barrier tube packaging market.

The need for improving the shelf life and efficiency in the usage of products has widened the area of application for barrier tubes. The ability of barrier tube to provide protection against moisture, light, heat, etc. is an important factor contributing to the growth of the barrier tube packaging market. However, the inability of the barrier tubes to offer bulk packaging can limit the growth in barrier tube packaging market. Moreover, the presence of substitutes of barrier tube packaging such as stand up pouches which are as cheap and efficient as barrier tube for utilization of viscous fluids can hamper the barrier tube packaging market. The rising concern of the regulatory authorities on the backdrop of increasing plastic waste can resist the growth of the barrier tube packaging market.

However being a sustainable form of packaging can open new opportunities for barrier tube packaging market over the forecast period.

North America is expected to lead the barrier tube packaging market over the forecast period due to the barrier tube packaging being aligned with the consumption pattern in the region. Latin America and APEJ region is expected to exhibit rapid growth for the barrier tube packaging market owing to the changing lifestyle of the consumers in the region.

Western Europe and Japan region is anticipated to contribute the significant amount of revenue for barrier tube packaging market attributing to the significant per capita expense on the packaging. While the demand for barrier tube packaging market in Eastern Europe and MEA region is expected to be sluggish.
