As one of the only single professional "one-stop shop" companies in the US that have been serving the trucking and logistics industry with the best solution to the national truck parking crisis, the truck depot continues to grow across the continental United States from the west coast eastward aggressively.

CEO, Aurel Davidyan, stated "The Truck Depot has been serving our independent and corporate trucking customers since 2012. We believed that Dallas was a very positive growth market that we were not serving. Our newest Dallas location at C F Hawn Fwy will allow the truck depot to give the existing customers that have come to rely on us for a safe and secure place to get rest, service their trucks, comply with hours-of-service DOT regulations, and get back on the road and down to business. We have continued to grow even in the pandemic and have a very aggressive growth plan for 2023 and beyond."
