

Cosmetics Market Is Estimated To Develop at A Substantial CAGR for the duration of the prediction ; Avon Products Inc.

Increase in awareness of probable side effects of cosmetics and skin concerns among customers is an important factor that limits growth of the market

PORTLAND, 5933 NE WIN SIVERS DRIVE, #205, OR 97220, UNITED STATE, July 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- the cosmetics market is expected to witness significant growth, owing to increase in awareness among consumers regarding maintaining prolonged beauty and change in lifestyle have significantly contributed toward growth of the market. Furthermore, increase in aggressive advertisements and promotions through social media platforms by manufacturers plays a crucial role in growth of the market

According to a new report published by Allied Market Research, titled, “cosmetics market by category, gender and distribution channel: opportunity analysis and industry forecast, 2021–2027,” the global cosmetics market size was valued at $380.2 billion in 2019, and is projected to reach $463.5 billion by 2027, registering a CAGR of 5.3% from 2021 to 2027. Convergence of advancements, beauty, and lifestyle propels growth of the cosmetics market. Moreover, the cosmetics market across the globe has witnessed continuous and sustained growth over years, owing to rise in beauty-conscious female population. Several other factors such as increase in female labor force, rise in awareness regarding maintaining prolonged beauty, and change in lifestyle have significantly contributed toward growth of the cosmetics market trends.

Furthermore, demand for herbal and natural cosmetics products is anticipated to increase at a substantial rate during the forecast period. In addition, brands such as the Himalaya Drug Company, Patanjali Ayurved Limited, and Hindustan Unilever Limited are indulged in producing herbal and natural cosmetics products. Hence, rise in awareness regarding fashion and natural skin products significantly propel the cosmetics market growth.

Global per capita income has witnessed a strong growth rate over past few years, particularly in emerging economies. Increase in urbanization, growth of middle class consumers, and surge in rate of female participation in labor force in many developing and developed markets has encouraged adoption of convenience-oriented lifestyles, making cosmetics products more desirable. According to estimates, per capita income in the next decade is expected to increase at a significant rate in developing countries compared to developed countries. This has significant implications for growth of the cosmetics market.

A wide range of cosmetics products are available in the market for deeply nourishing skin such as lotions, creams, deodorants, hair care, and essential oils. In addition, rise in consciousness about personal well-being and appearance has increased among men, which drives sales of cosmetics products. Moreover, owing to hectic lifestyle and varying climatic conditions, men are also adopting skin care, sun care, and hair care products. Thus, cosmetics products help in treating and provides prevention from rack and dry & dull skin, which boosts their demand globally.

Moreover, owing to the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, manufacturers have increased social media advertisement for using herbal skin care products to reach a large consumer base. However, implementation of lockdown and curfew practices globally has affected domestic as well as international production of skin care products, which, in turn, hampers growth of the overall market. Thus, the outbreak of COVID-19 has negatively impacted the cosmetics market in 2020, as sales of companies have reduced and operations have been halted.

Over the next five years, demand for natural cosmetics is expected to grow strongly. Customers prefer to use cosmetic products that are less harmful and have minimum side effects. Further, manufacturers are likely to use natural ingredients in their skin care and hair care products to satisfy consumer needs. Many big players in the market such as L'Oréal, Unilever, Color Bar, and Avon are planning to invest big budgets in an effort to promote natural aspects of their cosmetics products.
