WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO,
UNITED STATES, July 15, 2022
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Frantzen and Epperhart are the scheduled guests on the July 18, 2022 livecast.

Frantzen is the founder and visionary for Authentic Wealth, a registered investment advisory firm. Frantzen has 20 years of experience serving families in the financial services industry to help them gain financial freedom and clarity.

He holds a business degree from Texas A&M University, where he also played football as a linebacker and 12th Man. He holds a Masters of Divinity from Global Awakening Theological Seminary. Professionally, Frantzen is registered as a Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) and specializes in advanced wealth management planning. "Chad enjoys bridging the gap between biblical principles of finance and leadership with the wise stewardship of financial resources," according to his biography.

Epperhart is devoted to investing in people and is passionate about guiding others into sustainable financial freedom. Along with teaching people how to reach financial independence, he loves empowering others to build their wealth so that they can have a city and nation impact
