

Osmosis Wins Three Comparably Awards - “Best CEOs for Women”, “Best CEOs for Diversity”, and “Best Career Growth”

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, USA, July 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Osmosis.org, the leading health education platform that empowers millions of current and future clinicians and caregivers worldwide with the best learning experience possible, has been awarded the following awards by Comparably: Best CEOs for Women, Best CEOs for Diversity, and Best Career Growth. Comparably, a leading workplace culture and corporate brand reputation platform, celebrates the companies and leaders that are deemed the most exceptional by those who know them best – their employees.

Osmosis has won a total of 16 Comparably awards to date. This recognition follows awards for Best Company Outlook and Best Places to Work in Salt Lake City earlier this year, as well as Best Company Culture, Best CEOs for Diversity and Women, and Best Company Leadership, Work-Life Balance, and Happiness in 2020 and 2021.

Osmosis was recently acquired by Elsevier, a global leader in information and analytics. Elsevier has received 20 Comparably awards between 2021 and 2022, including Best Global Culture, Best Team Operations, Best Places to Work in New York, Best Company Outlook, Best Company for Diversity, Women, and Culture, Best CEO, Best Work-Life Balance, and Best Company for Women.

“Shiv’s decision to make Osmosis a fully-distributed team, even before COVID-19, has brought together more people across timezones, ages, races, sexualities, genders, and abilities,” said Elijah Lee, Medical Illustrator and Project Manager. “We are as colorful as the videos that we create, which is essential when our goal is to make educational materials more diverse, inclusive, and accessible.”

“As a working mother and employee, I feel very supported by Osmosis. The Osmosis culture is second to none, and I’m proud to work for an organization that values staff feedback, focuses on diversity and inclusion, and truly leads with empathy and compassion,” said Lindsey Smith, Senior Customer Experience Manager.”
