

Alternative Christian band touches the doorsteps of community with latest single, Fern and Tiff Launch Fall Music Tour

The words of our music reflect those ups and downs and the "glass half full" or "glass half empty" perspective."

JACKSONVILLE, NC, UNITED STATES, July 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Indie Recording Artists Fernando Rivera and Tiffany Elaine known in the Eastern North Carolina area as "Fern and Tiff" are bringing their alternative Christian sound to the stage this fall 2022. Their music brings influence and inspiration to the stage with the powerful lyrics in their latest song, "I Know". Produced by TeraNote Records in Morehead City, North Carolina, Fern and Tiff will bring their family of four children, their pets, and their powerful message to the road.

Tiff stated..."Our music is inspired by the naturality for us in our journeys to have ups and downs in life and from day to day our perspective can change. The words of I Know reflect those ups and downs and the "glass half full" or "glass half empty" perspective." The latest song I Know was born during the pandemic and is an expression comprised of two different prayers, the first of which is very much from a moment of feeling too weak to handle the struggles ahead and trying your hardest to just remember God's grace and that he is there for you even if you can't see that so clearly.

Our music is inspired by the naturalness for us in our journeys to have ups and downs in life and from day to day, our perspective can change. The words I Know reflect those ups and downs."
