Providing a more central location for their clients to enjoy, the new structure at 1150 Ryan Street, has a sleek new look, branded with the eye-catching “TWK”, that stands out against the building’s surroundings. The modern interior design creates a professional environment, while the warm indoor accents allow for a more “down-home” feel.

“

In our new offices, our team is ready to continue providing our clients with our accounting services, but now we can finally grow our resources with this new footprint in downtown Lake Charles.”
