MARKHAM, ONTARIO, CANADA, July 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Markham Board of Trade is pleased to announce Chris Collucci as the new President & CEO for the organization, effective July 18th, 2022.

As the city's local Chamber of Commerce, the Markham Board of Trade is a vital part of Markham's economic success with local businesses and stakeholders across our community, and beyond.

"I look forward to serving the Markham Board of Trade and our business community in the coming years," he said.

With deep roots in Markham, Collucci brings a wide array of business experience ranging from Fortune 500 corporations such as IBM and Motorola (located in Markham) plus over a decade of experience as a Markham business owner and award-winning entrepreneur.

Lending his business knowledge and passion for innovation to students, Collucci teaches Innovation in Entrepreneurship at Seneca College and has spent years supporting business success as a mentor, trainer and coach.

In addition to his corporate background and living in Markham for over 21 years, Collucci's experience as a Markham entrepreneur lends a fresh and focused real-world perspective for supporting business growth and success.

Secretary of the Board of Directors, Eric Lariviere said: "The leadership search was conducted through an independent, professional, HR talent company. After months with more than a hundred inquiries and related interviews, Chris Collucci was identified as the best choice for Markham Board of Trade, President & CEO."

Giving back to the community, Collucci serves on the Board of Directors for local organizations including Evergreen Hospice and the Association of Chinese Canadian Entrepreneurs (ACCE), as well as supporting Markham's Business Mentoring program as a volunteer since 2015.
