

Dedalus identified as a top multiregional EMR vendor used outside the US by KLAS Research

Dedalus has the largest number of installed Electronic Medical Records - EMRs in non-US inpatient hospitals

MILAN, ITALY, July 25, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Dedalus is a leading Global Health Software (HealthTech) Company and one of the world's largest companies in Digital Health. It offers open standards-based solutions across the whole continuum of care.

Dedalus Group (Dedalus) is pleased to have been recognised by KLAS as one of the 'leading top multiregional vendor, outside of the US, in 2021' in their report: Global (Non-US) EMR Market Share 2022.

KLAS Research identifies that Dedalus has the largest number of installed Electronic Medical Records - EMRs in non-US inpatient hospitals (1,612), over 35% more than the next largest vendor.

This result demonstrates the continuing success of Dedalus' strategy to develop its position as a global leader in innovative healthcare solutions.”

Andrea Fiumicelli - Chief Executive Officer

The report also highlight Dedalus' continued leading position in the European EMR market. In 2021, Dedalus had the largest number of new contracts, 23 contracts across 43 total facilities, accounting for the second highest number of contracted beds.

Andrea Fiumicelli, CEO of Dedalus Group, stated, “This result demonstrates the continuing success of Dedalus’ strategy to develop its position as a global leader in innovative healthcare solutions. The report also announced Dedalus' future plans in consolidating certain EMR solutions to a few go-forward platforms depending on geography.

Dedalus are delighted to have been acknowledged in this KLAS Research report. Our vision is for a digitally enabled healthcare ecosystem where all stakeholders actively collaborate across the continuum of care to improve each citizen's health outcomes”.
