

Franciscan Ministries Welcomes New President, Chief Executive Officer

Regina Umanskiy will lead Franciscan Ministries, one of the nation's top Catholic senior living and community-based service providers.

LEMONT, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, July 20, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Franciscan Ministries

Regina brings the gifts of compassion and deep respect for others and the ministry of senior living. We welcome her with open arms as she joins us in continuing our 128-year legacy.”

Sister M. Bernadette Bajuscik

announced today that following a national search, Regina Umanskiy has been named as the Ministry’s new president and chief executive officer.

Umanskiy will succeed Judy Amiano, who announced her retirement earlier this year.

“The sisters and I are honored to welcome Regina Umanskiy to lead our sponsored ministries”, said Sister M. Bernadette Bajuscik, General Minister of the Franciscan Sisters of Chicago. “Besides her wealth of knowledge, Regina brings the gifts of compassion and deep respect for others and the ministry of senior living. We welcome her with open arms, as she joins us in continuing the 128-year legacy and the charism of our Foundress Mother Mary Theresa Dudzik.”

In her new role, Umanskiy will oversee all aspects of the Ministry, including Franciscan Communities, Franciscan Advisory Services and the philanthropic efforts of Madonna Foundation and St. Jude House.

As a forward-thinking, strategic operations executive, Umanskiy brings more than two decades of leadership experience in the senior living industry. She is skilled in developing client relations, cultivating business growth opportunities and implementing programs to drive resident and associate engagement.

Most recently, Umanskiy served as Vice President of Operations and Integrated Solutions for Senior Lifestyle Corporation in Chicago. She oversaw a 2,100-bed portfolio of nine communities across six states, consisting of skilled nursing and rehabilitation centers, independent living, assisted living and memory care.

Umanskiy received a master's degree in business administration from the University of Notre Dame and holds a bachelor's degree in nursing from Ursuline College. She is also a Licensed Nursing Home Administrator.

"I am honored and delighted to join Franciscan Ministries with its strong history of philanthropy and devotion to its Mission to 'Celebrate Life and Serve with Joy'. I look forward to partnering with compassionate, experienced and dedicated professionals; to help lead the Ministry in fulfilling the Mission by providing exceptional care to our residents and support to our associates," Umanskiy said.
