recent months, with appearances on BBC Radio 5, and other UK and Gibraltar networks by new president and chairman Michael Anton Monsour to discuss the headgear initiative. Mr. Monsour, who acted as the president of Wonder Lab Films before leaving the position in 2021 after a successful campaign which saw Wonder Lab Films receive more than half a dozen global film awards in three different genres including 6 awards for his documentary short "Good Morning, Good Morning", The Milan Gold Award for Best Independent Film for a dark comedy entitled "Wolf Boy" and The Telly People's Choice Silver Award for Best Online Commercial.

F.C., (Mr. Monsour's U.S based football club) had this to say about the upcoming documentary series on Manchester 62 F.C.

"I have seen the impact first hand with the headgear initiative Michael (Monsour) implemented here with Pittsburgh City United and it is a story I have been fortunate enough to witness and be a part of since the beginning. A story that has truly captured the hearts and minds of people around the world who have had to live with having family members who have suffered from the effects of Alzheimer's and Dementia. Rarely in documentary film do you have the opportunity to be a part of history, and in our case with Wonder Lab, the opportunity to document history being made for the betterment of future generations is something that we want to stand behind. Michael has been an incredible creative force for Wonder Lab Films since our inception, but he is now a part of a story that the world wants someone to tell. It is my job as Wonder Lab Films president to ensure we do just that."
