CYBER WARFARE HAS FINALLY MET ITS MATCH

Dark Cryptonite's U.S. patent-pending technology heavily leverages encrypted data chunking algorithms and a secure browser that utilizes zero trust models for ultimate protection. When utilized with Dark Cryptonite's proprietary private network (not accessible via the internet) all data traversing or stored within its environment becomes virtually impenetrable to threat actors. In addition, Dark Cryptonite runs seamlessly-- without the need for internal infrastructure or software setup and maintenance.

Dark Cryptonite's video conferencing tool, ensures the security of an entity's most confidential communications, without fear of external, uninvited intrusion. Other products include an Iron-Clad Digital Bunker Backup and Storage application, along with a Secure eMail System that will keep an entity's data hidden in the noise where it remains undetectable.

"The integrity and impenetrability of our clients' data are critical to our business of driving value and savings. We chose Dark Cryptonite for our needs because there isn't another product on the market that accomplishes the task even remotely," said Mark Milen-Founder & CEO, Innovate Holdings, LLC

Dark Cryptonite is GDPR, NIST, HIPAA, ISO2700, DFS, and CMMC Compliant.
