“

This webinar will explain how agents can win more listings by offering something their competitors are not.”

Jessica Morrow, Revive Head of Operations and Webinar host

“As the market shifts, we want real estate agents to know that Revive can help them with anxious sellers who may feel they’ve missed the market,” said Jessica Morrow, Revive Head of Operations, who will host the webinar. “Sellers can still sell a home well over market value, especially when they do a presale renovation,” Morrow explained. “This webinar will explain how agents can win more listings by offering something their competitors are not.”

The “Rush or Renovate?” webinar will show agents:

- How to leverage Revive to build out their business and win more listings.
- 2022 Market insight: understanding the risk vs. reward of pre-listing renovations.
- Revive's new program offerings.
- A look under the hood at Revive’s unique and streamlined approach to presale home renovations.

Every real estate agent Webinar attendee will receive a Revive crewneck shirt and a $20 Starbucks card. As an extra incentive, Webinar participants who engage in the Q&A at the end will be automatically entered to win a $200 Amazon gift card.
