Christy Hui-Author of FLYING FILLIES

"FLYING FILLIES is a top recommendation for libraries. . . . The engrossing history and psychological pull of the story bring the era and its women to life. More so than most other accounts of World War II for young readers, it connects the dots between personal passion and higher-level thinking and life experiences. . . . Advanced elementary to middle-grade readers receive an enlightening tale of World War II that focuses on the idea, training, and challenges of the WASP..." — D. Donovan, Senior Reviewer, Midwest Book Review
