Known for some of the most creative resort programming, enjoy everything from an art preview, yoga on the lawn, sound healing and excellent eats from award-winning Chef Chuck Wiley overseeing Hearth '61. An upscale ingredient-driven restaurant, Hearth '61 is a can't-be-missed dining experience.

Food and Beverage Manager Jim Gallen always surprises with the cocktail of the moment, best enjoyed at the pool in a luxe cabana.

Known for one of the vibiest pools in town, a lot of fun is about to be had whether booking the Vinyl Rewind package, complete with, yes, ten records, to enjoy during the stay or the Bye Babe Breakup package that comes with a smashable chocolate heart and a self-care workbook.

Why Stay at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa?

At sundown, a bag-pipe player calls in the golfers from the green, ushering in evening and a swanky vibe on the outdoor patio, where everyone is celebrating the beautiful end to the day.

ZEN NEAR THE PRAYING MONK | Sanctuary Camelback Mountain

A modern, zen inspiration led the design of Sanctuary Camelback Mountain, featuring an Eastern-inspired spa and Asian influences in the dining at Elements. Chef Beau MacMillan is credited for leading an amazing culinary team that brought James Beard Award-nominated Samantha Sanz to his kitchen and Christiaan Rollich to the bar, where spends most of his time in the kitchen making fresh mixers, muddles and purees for his magnificent craft cocktails. He's even more famous for his cocktails than he is for his role as body double for Brad Pitt.

Why Stay at Sanctuary Camelback Mountain?

Book dinner just before sunset in Elements and watch the sun set on Paradise Valley from above with lights dotting the mountainside and Saguaro cacti shadowing the ground.

Summer Offer

Take advantage of the 'Hot Dates, Cool Rates' special which extends 15% off the best Sanctuary rates now through September 1st.
