Next Day Access Memphis Team

Next Day Access Memphis is a local provider of accessibility and mobility products. They sell and install wheelchair ramps, grab bars, stair lifts, elevators, and more. Their mission is to help residences and businesses keep aging loved ones, individuals with disabilities, and patrons safe and independent.

We are honored to receive the Deborah Cunningham Access Award.”

Greg Inman, Next Day Access Memphis Branch Manager

The Deborah Cunningham Access Award recognizes individuals, organizations, and businesses for its significant contribution to removing barriers or increasing access for people with disabilities in the community. Deborah Cunningham was the Executive Director of the Memphis Center for Independent Living and a national activist for disability rights. She advocated for accessible public transportation, affordable, and integrated housing, and equal access to public accommodations in Memphis and the surrounding areas.

“I am blessed to have a team that is not only hardworking but passionate towards providing solutions to keep members of our community safe and independent in their homes,” said Inman.

“Next Day Access provides people with disabilities in our community with ramps that enable them to move freely in and out of their homes which enables them to participate in their community,” said Christina Clift, Consumer Advocate at the Memphis Center for Independent Living. “They treat people with dignity and work with their financial situation to find a solution. We are happy to award Next Day Access the Deborah Cunningham Access Award.”
