“We’re not listing your house... we’re the ones buying your house. Because we pay cash, we can close quickly or on your schedule. As we’ve mentioned, when you work with us, there are no fees like when you list your house with an agent. What this means to you is you don’t have to worry about extra costs, having to come out of pocket to sell your house fast, or even getting your house ready for a sale. We’ll buy your house as-is.”

Gallegos added that homeowners are not obligated to do anything after submitting their information to Blue Sky Investment Holdings. This concern is part of the frequently asked questions posted on their website.

“There is zero obligation for you. Once you tell us a bit about your property, we’ll take a look at things, maybe set up a call with you to find out more, and make you an all-cash offer that’s fair for you and fair for us. From there, it’s 100% your decision on whether or not you’d like to sell your house to us... and we won’t hassle you, won’t harass you... it’s 100% your decision and we’ll let you decide what’s right for you.”
