COVID-19 Scenario Analysis:

The pet care market has been severely impacted due to the COVID-19 pandemic. It has hampered the supply chain of the product due to restrictions on travel and which has led to a shortage of products.

Due to lockdown, sales have decreased as various pet care stores are closed. However, the online retailer has helped in increasing product sales.

Import and exports are also affected because of regulatory hurdles which have caused in shortage of raw material and pet care products.

Companies are now focusing on increasing their distribution channels to meet consumer demand.

Top Impacting Factors: Market Scenario Analysis, Trends, Drivers and Impact Analysis

The factors that drive the growth of the global pet market are increase in animal humanization, mobile pet grooming, surge in the demand for protein in the animal food, and demand in pet insurance. However, high pet care products cost, lack of awareness of products, and low income hinder the growth of the pet care market.

An increase in nuclear families has increased the adoption of pets. People are getting more aware of pet health and want the best pet care products; this has increased the demand for organic food among the countries.

Movies and ad campaign have greatly influenced people to adopt pets and in turn, it has increased the sale of pet care product. Advances in technology have given easy access to training and grooming facilities. Pet lovers or pet owners are also focusing on giving healthy pet food.
