When I put on Kelli Baker, I get transported into a world of fresh nostalgia. Her voice is like the legendary blues women of the 1930's and 40's, but with a modern seductiveness.”

Hot on the heels of her July release, “Intimate Creatures” Baker immediately announces her focus single, “Blood on the Nile”.

This is a new direction for Baker, as she brings her bandmates into Richie Cannata’s prestigious Cove City Sound Studios in Glen Cove, NY. (Justin Bieber, Jon Bellion, Celine Dion, Mariah Carey, among countless others).

The tour kicks off on July 23rd at iconic NYC venue, The Bitter End, stopping in Pennsylvania, Georgia, Florida, and South Carolina.

Quotes:

“When I put on Kelli Baker, I get transported into a world of fresh nostalgia. Her voice is like the legendary blues women of the 1930's and 40's, but with a modern seductiveness. Her songs are moody and sensual and worth listening to on repeat. There's no one with her particular sound right now."

"If anyone can channel pain that is normally held deep inside it is Kelli Baker..There is no way we are going to be left to the blues without a stirring talking to..an indication of the talent
we are dealing with in Kelli. "

About Kelli Baker:

Recently signed as a Brand Ambassador for Monster Products, Kelli Baker is a Sony Music Artist under Bad Jeu Jeu Records/CDX Nashville.

Kelli Baker brings a sound unlike any other. With a powerhouse voice dripping with a haunting sensuality that slips easily into growling old school blues-tones, Kelli speaks her heart like a beat poet in a late night dive. The kind you only know if you're in the know. Her music is an amalgamation of authentic blues/rock and heart-on-her-sleeve singer/songwriter pop with folk/gospel roots.

Known in some circles as “The Phoenix”, Kelli was born and raised in Phoenix, Arizona. She moved to New York in 2012. Learning music like so many others in the church choir, Kelli graduated to fronting a hard rock band and a folk duo, writing her own music at an early age.

Kelli has recently returned from a successful national tour topped off with performing in Paris, France.

Now performing with The Kelli Baker Band, she appears regularly at iconic music houses such as NYC's The Bitter End, and some of New York's most discerning venues. The Kelli Baker Band kicks off their East Coast tour in July of 2022.

Kelli has swiftly moved through the ranks of Long Island's bristling music scene to become a known name. Kelli has been nominated as the Best Singer from Long Island 2021 & 2022 by Bethpage's prestigious “Best of Long Island” award series, and named one of Newsday's Rising Stars. She has been featured on WFUV's coveted NY Slice, Rollin' With hosted by Rob Rush of 94.3 The Shark, Brooklyn Vegan, Broadway World, NYC.Com, Better Lemons, and Faces of Long Island, as well as many other international and national outlets.

Kelli delivers a commanding performance and has been compared to Bonnie Raitt, Chris Cornell, Susan Tedeschi, and Aretha Franklin. Her dynamic blues tones and gospel nods have been called a kind of ethereal blues. Her major influences are The Rolling Stones, Muddy Waters, Jane's Addiction, The Black Crowes, Bonnie Raitt, and The Tedeschi Trucks Band.

The Kelli Baker Band recently recorded at the iconic Cove City Sound Studios with Richie Cannata (Billy Joel, Lords of 52nd Street) and John Arbuckle (Justin Bieber, Jon Bellion). Kelli has recorded at Milk House Studios with multi-platinum producer Philip A. Jimenez (Wheatatus, Teenage Dirtbag) and Blokhed Studios with Grammy-nominated producer Tommy Stiegler. Susan Aquila (recorded and worked with Led Zeppelin, Paul McCartney, Steven Tyler) appears on “Cathedral”. She resides just outside of New York City.
