2027" covers all the aspects including industry performance, key success, and risk factors, manufacturing requirements, project costs, and economics expected returns on investment, profit margins, etc. required for setting up a shampoo manufacturing plant. The study, which is based both on desk research and multiple waves of qualitative primary research, is a must-read for entrepreneurs, investors, researchers, consultants, business strategists, and all those who are planning to foray into the shampoo industry in any manner.

Shampoo is a vital component of the hair care routine that helps in the cleansing and nourishment of the hair. It is typically made by combining surfactants, such as sodium lauryl sulfate and sodium laureth sulfate, with co-surfactants, including cocamidopropyl betaine, in water. Shampoos are widely available in the form of viscous liquids, dry shampoo, solid shampoo, bar shampoo, etc. The regular usage of shampoo ensures easily manageable, lustrous, and healthy hair. Additionally, it can also prevent several hair-related ailments, since many shampoos have antibacterial, anti-dandruff, and medicinal properties.
