

Zolo Announces 10 of the Best Wineries to Visit in Kelowna

The best wineries offer more than just fine wine - Zolo's top 10 wineries in Kelowna won't disappoint.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, August 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Besides being a fantastic year-round vacation spot, Kelowna is well-known as the center of Canadian winemaking and is famous for its beach, skiing in the winter, and numerous outdoor activities.

In Kelowna, wineries are practically everywhere, from the city limits to the hillsides surrounding Okanagan Lake. However, it isn't easy to pick just a few places to visit because there are over 120 wineries and 200 vineyards in the region.

Zolo has eliminated the guesswork and compiled a list of the ten best wineries in Kelowna based on reviews, industry awards, and field research.

1. Mission Hill Family Estate

1730 Mission Hill Rd, West Kelowna, BC V4T 2E4, Canada

Mission Hill wines consistently place among Canada's best in competitions like the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards. Wines are paired with locally inspired cuisine at Terrace Restaurant.

2. Tantalus Vineyards

1670 DeHart Rd, Kelowna, BC V1W 4N6, Canada

Mission Hill wines consistently place among Canada's best in competitions like the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards.

Tantalus' vineyards, which overlook Kelowna and Lake Okanagan, are some of the oldest in the valley; the first plantings took place in 1927.

3. Gray Monk

1055 Camp Rd, Lake Country, BC V4V 2H4, Canada

Gray Monk Winery is one of Okanagan Valley's oldest and most renowned wineries. Enjoy a casual meal or a seated tasting on the patio of the Lookout Restaurant while taking in the breathtaking views.

4. Summerhill Pyramid Winery

4870 Chute Lake Rd, Kelowna, BC V1W 4M3, Canada

Summerhill Pyramid Winery, a family-run gem on the Kelowna wine scene, is well-known for its enormous pyramid cellar built with sacred geometry.

5. Quails' Gate

3303 Boucherie Rd, Kelowna, BC V1Z 2H3, Canada

Quails' Gate, known for producing exceptional Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, is situated on an extinct volcano, giving the vineyard soils richness and depth.

“

The best winery visits don't just involve fine wine. They're about combining a beautiful location, excellent service, quality wine and a little something else: Personality.”

Shelley Boettcher

6. The Hatch

3225 Boucherie Rd, Kelowna, BC V1Z 2G9, Canada

The Hatch team produces gorgeous wines—reds, whites, bubbles, and rosés—and offers a visiting experience and gift shop unlike any other in the valley.

7. Volcanic Hills Estate Winery

2845 Boucherie Rd, Kelowna, BC V1Z 2G6, Canada

This winery is situated on a 60 million-year-old dormant volcano. Enjoy a wide range of wines and tastings, vineyard sabering and a proprietor's tour with the owner Bobby Gidda.

8. CedarCreek Estate Winery
