LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, July 26, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TravelSecrets.com - the free-to-join, members-only travel club on a mission to help its users save substantially when booking their hotels - is proud to be taking on the hotel booking industry, one low rate at a time.

Expedia. The result? Lower competition and higher prices for consumers.

Until now.

Charles Kao

Founded by travel experts and pioneers in the online travel space with more than 150 years of experience between them, TravelSecrets.com is focused on providing hotel bookings at the lowest rates available. At a time when entrenched industry behemoths are obliged to maximize their profits and rewarding their shareholders, TravelSecrets.com has been able to help its members comparatively save between 10-30% from prices at hotel OTAs one finds at Kayak, including Booking.com, Expedia.

TravelSecrets.com is able to do this by operating almost solely on a word-of-mouth basis. By cutting out advertising costs and working off of low margins as well as high volume, it's able to pass along massive savings compared to other OTAs, allowing its members to afford to take their dream vacations at a time when travel-related costs are skyrocketing.

"As someone who has worked in the travel booking space for decades, I know firsthand just how much consumers can be offered 10-30% lower prices for hotel bookings," says Charles Kao, the Founder and CEO of TravelSecrets.com. "These established brands are massive Goliaths and have to maintain high overheads. I started TravelSecrets.com in 1995 to take a different approach."

He added, "At a time when inflation and rising costs are impacting everyone, by passing along all the savings possible, we hope to continue helping our members have incredible, life-changing experiences."
