Those who are interested in this limited-time offer are advised to register soon to secure this deal. Register at <http://www.uav-technology.org/pr5>.

This year's UAV Technology Conference will provide delegates with the following opportunities:

- National updates on uncrewed aerial capability development

Hear over 19 briefings from leading international Air Forces Officers, Program Managers and Technical Scientists from the UK, the USA, Australia, Canada, Germany, Greece, NATO, and other international organisations.

- Gain insight into the latest cutting-edge technology from leading solution providers

Discover future trends and opportunities, as well as factors influencing the UAV market, by hearing first-hand from industry leaders shaping the landscape including Gold Sponsors: Echodyne and Leonardo.

- Explore key topics in the industry

Learn more about the utilisation of emerging technologies supporting and enabling UAS capabilities, policy development, operator training, safety, and certification regulation, ISR capabilities, developments in counter-UAV/UAS, and much more.

- Fantastic networking opportunity

The importance of allied cooperation is more prevalent than ever and interoperability between systems and national partners is crucial for any future planning. This conference will enable delegates to leave with a plan for their country's future UAV platform.
