Female Comedian Performs in Long Island, New York Jail; Comedian Muffy July 29, 2022

HOBOKEN, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, August 1, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Comedian Muffy performed inside the Nassau County Jail and Detention Center, Long Island, New York, on Friday, July 29, 2022. She gave four thirty-minute clean comedy shows to two groups of male and female incarcerated persons.

Comedian Muffy is a comedian who speaks professionally at conferences and performs inside jails and prisons.

This performance marks her third prison/jail performance.

Muffy grew up around Corrections, her parents, Drs. William and Nancy Steele, Clinical Psychologists, worked for prisons in Colorado, Ohio, and Minnesota. As a child, Muffy grew up across the street from a Canon City, Colorado, prison. Her Dad played Richard Pryor's records for her, thus beginning her love of comedy.

Comedian Muffy aka Laura J. Steele-Liebman, MA, CHES, is a Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES) from The National Commission for Health Education Credentialing, Inc. with a master's degree from New York University and a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota in Communication and Psychology.

She has over twenty-six years of professional work experience in Public Health and healthcare.
