Japan Organic Cosmetics Market Report

Organic cosmetics are derived from naturally sourced ingredients that are free from artificial additives, genetically modified organisms (GMOs), chemical compounds, etc. These products are rich in minerals, gelatin, essential vitamins, antioxidants, collagen, etc. Organic cosmetics offer numerous benefits over chemical-based counterparts, such as improving skin nourishment, reducing acne, maintaining skin health with toxin-free ingredients, etc. Some common product variants include hair care, oral care, skincare, fragrances, toiletries, etc.

As the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis takes over the world, we are continuously tracking the changes in the markets, as well as the industry behaviours of the consumers globally and our estimates about the latest market trends and forecasts are being done after considering the impact of this pandemic.

Japan Organic Cosmetics Market Trends:

The high prevalence of various dermatological disorders owing to increasing pollution levels, hectic lifestyles, use of petroleum-based cosmetic ingredients, etc., is driving the Japan organic cosmetics market. Furthermore, the growing consumer awareness towards reducing unethical activities and animal cruelty is augmenting the market growth. Additionally, the rising influence of social media beauty trends and several celebrity endorsements promoting organic cosmetics are also bolstering the product demand. Besides this, the emergence of organic product variants in the men grooming range is also fueling the product demand. Moreover, the easy availability of organic cosmetics across numerous e-commerce platforms is anticipated to catalyze the market growth in the coming years.
