

City of Fort Worth Proclaims Never Give Up Day

By recognizing Never Give Up Day, the city recognizes the resilience and determination of its citizens in making their community a great place to live.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, July 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The world needs inspiration now more than ever. Never Give Up Day is a global celebration focused on cultivating a mindset of determination to overcome difficult challenges. City of Fort Worth joins community members celebrating Never Give Up Day on August 18, 2022, and calls upon its citizens to make this day a springboard for awareness-raising actions. More cities in Texas that have recognized Never Give Up Day are Irving and the town of Little Elm.

This is the day to inspire others, motivate ourselves and remember that we can keep moving forward even in difficult times.

"By recognizing Never Give Up Day, the city recognizes the resilience and determination of its citizens in making their community a great place to live."

Never Give Up Day encourages awareness-raising activities, (sporting) events, charities, workshops and community events. Health care and social associations, organizations and charities can launch their own call to action and fundraising events. Overall, Never Give Up Day provides a common platform to inspire individuals and professionals to use their imagination and judgment to innovate.

Never Give Up Day provides hope and encouragement that benefits people. The day underscores the importance of determination as one of the factors affecting productivity and commitment of people.

When people have worked so hard for so long, sometimes they feel like they can't bear it anymore. Never Give Up Day acts as a resilience pill to increase people's will to live and fight."
