RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl has opened its call for audition submissions today for the fourth quest to find the top local talent to perform the National Anthem at the 2022 bowl game that takes place Tuesday, December 20 at FAU Stadium.

Along with Bowl community partners Roger Dean Stadium and Spirit of Giving Network, organizers invite and encourage vocalists and instrumentalists, amateurs and professionals, individuals and groups 18 years or older to upload their "Boca Raton Bowl Idol" video auditions to the bowl game's official website, RoofClaimBocaRatonBowl.com. The winner will get the opportunity to perform the National Anthem at the 2022 RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl during opening ceremonies at FAU Stadium prior to the game being televised nationally and receive 10 game tickets for family and friends with sideline access during the performance. "We are excited to launch our search, once again, for our next National Anthem performer. Each year this contest brings out an impressive wide range of local talent," shared RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl Executive Director Doug Mosley who reported that this year's bowl game will kick off on Tuesday, December 20 at 7:30 p.m. ET at FAU Stadium and be televised live by ESPN. "We encourage the community to participate throughout this contest by voting online and attending the live finale on September 28 at the Boca Raton Marriott at Boca Town Center." Talent Video Audition Submission Entry and Public Voting are Easy; Just an Online Click

Those interested in sharing their talent (vocal or instrumental) must upload an audition demo video using YouTube that features their performance of the National Anthem (acapella, instrumental, solo or groups are permitted) and complete the official online entry form between today Thursday, July 28 and Sunday, August 28 at 11:59 p.m. Audition tapes featuring songs other than the National Anthem will automatically be disqualified. Background music will be permitted as long as the contestant’s voice can clearly be distinguished. No other voices beside those auditioning should be featured in demo, and no one other than the person auditioning should appear in the demo.

On Thursday, September 1, the Top 10 performers selected will be featured on the RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl website, RoofClaimBocaRatonBowl.com for online voting during which the general public can cast their support of their favorite contestant. On Sunday, September 14, at 11:59 p.m. the bowl’s “idol poll” will officially close. The Top Five determined by the highest votes will be invited to compete once more at a RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl live finale in September.

Open-to-the-Public Finalists Night, September 28, Benefits Spirit of Giving

The Top Five contestants invited to compete live will perform a verse of their choice at the RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl Idol event.

The event to be held Wednesday, September 28 at the Boca Raton Marriott at Boca Center. A combination of audience votes, and judges’ votes will determine three finalists who will perform the National Anthem to see who will be chosen to sing on-field at this year’s RoofClaim.com Boca Raton Bowl. All proceeds of the live event will go to the bowl’s official charity partner, Spirit of Giving Network. Tickets will be available for purchase online starting August 10 at SpiritofGivingNetwork.com.
