

Johnny Prill Releases Tropically Themed Album – “Hawaiian Shirts & Hula Skirts”

New album has 10 tracks, including “Red Hawaiian Shirt,” all with a tropical vibe.

BAD AXE, MI, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Johnny Prill is delighted to announce the release of his latest album, “Hawaiian Shirts & Hula Skirts.” All 10 tracks, written by Prill, feature a tropical vibe. Listening to this album will whisk you away to Hawaii, or any other tropical paradise that you may be dreaming of. The song “Red Hawaiian Shirt” refers to the iconic shirt worn by Tom Selleck on the long-running TV series, Magnum PI. This shirt was so strongly representative of the show that it was inducted into the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC. In one episode of the 2018 reboot, Jay Hernandez wears the exact same shirt, in recognition of its significance.

“The shirt is printed with colorful parrots and a tropical foliage pattern on a red background and has carved wood buttons,” says Johnny Prill. “I believe this is the first song ever written about Tom Selleck’s famous red Hawaiian shirt!”

August, is a tribute to tropical paradises, cheeseburgers, and Jimmy Buffett. It includes the Parade of Tropical Fools which attracts more than 100,000 people every year.
